

OAKVILLE SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL BALLET

Oakville School of Classical Ballet has provided a long tradition of excellence in classical and contemporary ballet training. Located in the heart of downtown Olde Oakville, the School is just a short walk away from Lake Ontario.

The Summer programs are taught by an acclaimed group of professionals headed by Amanda Paterson, an accredited teacher of the Royal Academy of Dance syllabus and Affiliate Teacher and Examiner AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE® – National Training Curriculum.

The Pre-Professional Summer Training Divisions provide training to young dancers who aspire to professional careers in dance. In addition, the summer program is the second of a two-part audition into the School's Pre-Professional and Daytime Conservatory Programmes.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE

The Royal Academy of Dance is the world's largest examining and teaching organization for classical ballet. Oakville School of Classical Ballet includes The Royal Academy of Dance syllabus training for examinations from early levels, through to vocational grades, culminating with Solo Seal and preparation for the International Genée Ballet Competition.

Oakville School of Classical Ballet is proud to include the AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE® National Training Curriculum, a breakthrough 8 level program that combines high quality artistic training with the basics of dancer health and child development. The AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE® National Training Curriculum consists of a comprehensive set of age-appropriate, outcome based guidelines to provide the highest quality training to dance students of all ages and skill levels. The Oakville School of Classical Ballet enters students for AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE® National Training Curriculum examinations, and is the first school in Canada to have done so.
